

FRIDAY 4, NOVEMBER 2011

Welcome

Dear readers,

November looks set to be an exciting month for Dance in Devon. With our new project DEVON DANCE COMPASS kicking off, the highest quality dance will reach into the farthest corners of the county. Look out for re-shaping of the website, with more and clearer information of what's going on in the way of both performance events and classes.

We want to share our good news - £72,000 from Arts Council England, showing their support for our new dance project.

The COMPASS projects targets specific communities North, South, East & West with wrap-around dance excitement for a whole year, enriched by a residency with Freddie Opoku-Addaie & company and to top it all, visiting stars from the Royal Ballet!

What this means for Devon >>>>

- Four new part time Area Dance Ambassador posts with Dance in Devon
- Community dance activities for all age groups and abilities
- Chances for local professionals to work with visiting artists
- Leadership courses and professional performances

See website homepage for Application packs for 4 dance ambassadors and 1 project assisant.

DEADLINE- 25 NOVEMBER

Applications open NOW, don't miss out!

New Reviewers Scheme in the process...

New intern Kate Hird is looking to pick up the reviewers scheme again. These reviews can be for any dance performance, any venue and anywhere in Devon!

If you are interested in taking part in the scheme, seeing some dance for free and having your review published on the website contact Kate-
